About This Game

Welcome to Cortex Protocol test subject [REDACTED]!

In this VR game you will be navigating through a maze in a computer simulation. The mazes are filled with puzzles and traps, and come in different shapes and sizes. In these mazes you have full control over the position of rooms, you can rotate parts of the maze just like you would rotate a Rubik's cube. Your testing assignment will be to navigate to the exit of these mazes.

Here at Cortex we test the capabilities of the human mind, your contribution will help us make a better future.

We hope that you have a pleasant testing experience.

Best regards,
